

Impacts of COVID-19 on Private Company Valuations and M&A Webinar

Join us on Wednesday, May 20th to hear RA Capital Advisors and Vantage Point Advisors discuss COVID-19's impact on M&A, capital raising and valuation.

www.raca.com

Eliot Peters is a Managing Director with RA Capital Advisors and brings 20 years of experience as an advisor to his clients and plays a key role in the firm's strategic direction and execution of client engagements. Mr. Peters has considerable expertise in the design and execution of successful processes for sales, mergers and recapitalizations of founder-led or privately-held businesses.

Joel Weinstein is a Managing Director with RA Capital Advisors and has advised numerous public and privately-owned companies on mergers, acquisitions, capital raises, financings and strategic advisory assignments totaling over $5.0 billion. Mr. Weinstein has considerable experience in the consumer, healthcare, industrials and technology sectors and leads the firm's financing and family office advisory practices.

Date: Wednesday, May 20, 2020

Time: 11:00AM PDT

Duration: 1 Hour

Takeaways:

- Observations regarding M&A and Capital Markets outlook
- Update on deal activity and valuations during the COVID-19 pandemic
- Venture capital and private equity trends
- Contrasting today's market to the great recession

RA Capital Advisors LLC, Member FINRA and SIPC

www.vpadvisors.com

Brent Glova is a Managing Director with VPA and brings 15 years of experience as a valuation advisor performing valuations of businesses and securities to support complex transactions for privately-held, venture-backed, and public companies. Mr. Glova plays a key role in valuations of companies in many industries across the US, and has specialized expertise in the life sciences, technology and manufacturing sectors.

Naomi Derner is a Managing Director with VPA and brings over 20 years of experience performing valuations of businesses, securities, and intangible assets, serving angel-, venture-, and private equity-backed start-ups, family-owned and closely-held companies, and publicly-held companies. Ms. Derner has specific valuation expertise in technology, life sciences, food, beverage, cannabis, hospitality, media and consulting.

Register